- 51 Sectors

I’ve worked with Shalini Khemka CBE and E2E for many years. By championing entrepreneurship, building a community and offering a range of key services E2E has become a clear leader in the sector. On a personal level, I’ve made extraordinary connections which have led to investment in businesses looking for smart money and experience.

Hugh Chappell
Entrepreneurs are the lifeblood of any economy. Since 2011, E2E has focused on providing entrepreneurs with access to a unique and unparalleled ecosystem of business leaders and services to help them scale-up their businesses.

We have helped thousands of entrepreneurs to make excellent business connections, source timely investment, find Non-Executive Directors and form partnerships with world-class corporate services.

The recent pandemic and cost of living crisis have generated start-ups at record levels. The UK enjoys one of the best startup ecosystems in the world, second only to the United States. However, its world ranking for scale-up entrepreneurship is down in 25th place.

We are focused on reducing this gap. I am passionate about creating an exceptionally connected community of founders, business leaders and investors that together, with us, enable extraordinary entrepreneurship.
I just wanted to say how much I enjoyed today’s event. I have been to three E2E events to date and they have all been very good but today’s is perhaps the best, closely followed by the evening with OCADO.... I loved the discussion around talent hires and the final question “Are you lucky?”, I will use that.

RYAN WILLIAMS
Co-Founder & CEO, ODESEA

E2E is one of the rare networking gems where everyone I meet is involved with something incredible. I run a fairly esoteric niche of a scale up called ODESEA where I design and manufacture (in Vietnam) shipping containers into luxury homes and offices. It’s always been a struggle to meet investors or other entrepreneurs in the manufacturing field as most startups are involved in digital technology. To my genuine surprise, I met an old colleague who is also an investor and entrepreneur himself - now he’s my first investor and full-time business partner! E2E has been perfect for attracting and retaining such a strong network of experienced entrepreneurs and investors who think outside the box.

ENABLING EXTRAORDINARY ENTREPRENEURSHIP
I attend quite a few entrepreneur events and that was one of the best by far, both in terms of the content, quality of speaker and quality of attendee. I very much enjoyed Avnish's talk and insight also. It is easy to neglect your own health when working on your business which was a key message I took away (though I would say the pudding was delicious)! I shall definitely recommend E2E to entrepreneurs in my network.

ANDREW WELSH
CEO, Meraki Talent
